

The image shows the interior of a restaurant or bar. The ceiling features exposed dark wooden beams. The floor is covered in light-colored tiles with a repeating diamond pattern. On the left, there is a long counter with a blue corrugated metal front. On the right, there is a bar with a similar blue corrugated metal front and several red leather bar stools. A central hallway leads to a back area where a kitchen or service area is visible. The lighting is warm, with a brass lamp hanging over the bar and a white security camera mounted on the ceiling.
